Clapham Common
21 Sept. 1864

My dear Bishop McIlwaine

It will give Mr Lawrence & myself so much pleasure to have Mr Dawson, himself & your son on Saturday in time for dinner & for your short stay till Tuesday -

We were induced to remain at Lucerne over the Sunday so that we were obliged to travel through the night & only to remain a few hours in Paris on the Tuesday so as to fulfil an engagement I had for 14th in London -

In driving to this place will you direct your coachman to go through Battersea Park to Battersea Rise and our house will be found at the corner of Clapham Common on the right

Bellevue

Dear Bishop Hefswain

Yours very truly

H Lawrence

as far as your own the Sunday school and engaged to study for the next year to the place old you don't go further to the school
Park to the school the one thing is the house at the corner
